ED121 Version: 13

Early Childhood Professionalism

Calendar Description

This course explores values, attitudes, ethics, and commitment involved in working professionally with young children and families. Roles and responsibilities, conflict resolution, and how to be a professional team member are examined. An appreciation of family encourages and enhances student's self-awareness and ability to interact respectfully with children and families. Professional interactions involving interviewing skills and making presentations are practiced.

Rationale

This is a required course for Early Learning and Child Care Certificate students. They must be aware of the roles and responsibilities of working with young children and families. To function professionally in an early childhood setting, students must know how to present themselves as professionals, and must work effectively as a member of a team.

Prerequisites

None

Co-Requisites

None

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to

1. describe the roles and responsibilities of an effective early learning and child care professional.
2. describe the professional ethics that are related to the early learning and child care field.
3. discuss the early learning and child care educator's role in working respectfully with children and families of differing backgrounds.
4. identify and describe different types of early learning and child care programs.
5. interpret regulations that determine the operation of a day care centre.
6. outline how to be an effective member of an early learning and child care team.

7. summarize steps towards conflict resolution.
8. design and initiate a professional portfolio.
9. demonstrate professional through activities, discussions and presentations.
